MEMBERSHIP AND MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

Membership:

2017 Stanley Women's Golf Club Membership Dues is $90.00 for all members. Dues include payment to the CSGA for a GHIN handicap and all tournament entry fees, except for any additional amounts charged if a meal is provided. A late fee of $5 will be charged against a returning member who's payment is not postmarked by 5/1/17.

Membership is open to all women sixteen years of age and older. New members will be assigned a mentor. If an interested applicant does not have a mentor, the Executive Board will assign one. Mentors will assist new members in getting acquainted with other members and answering any questions regarding the rules, regulations, and policies of our Club. Items that are addressed by the mentor include:

- Tournament Sign-up and Play – review tournament procedures to new members.
- Golf Rules – New (and old) members should obtain a USGA Rule Book and become familiar with basic rules as all tournaments are governed by these rules. Rules questions must be resolved quickly to avoid slow play in a tournament.
- Etiquette and Courtesy - Courtesy and good sportsmanship are critical components of our club. Mentors will explain courtesy on the green, order of putting, flag tending, honors on the tee, ready golf, and pace of play.
- Handicaps, Posting and ESC – the mentor will assist new members in posting golf scores and/or introduce the new member to the Handicap Chairperson, and explain the Equitable Stroke Control (ESC) procedure. All members are assigned a "Local Number." A list of members' Local Numbers is located in a Binder next to the computer in the Pro Shop. See the Handicaps and Equitable Stroke Control (ESC) section for detailed information.

New members are eligible to play in all tournaments, but are NOT eligible for prizes until they have an established GHIN handicap. The exception is Opening Day where a Calloway Division is included for new members without a GHIN handicap.

Member Responsibilities:

To be eligible for tournament prizes, participants must post their scores on the GHIN handicap system on the same day of the event. Posting can be done either on the Pro Shop computer, at GHIN.com or a smart phone app.

Every member has a responsibility to the Club and to other players on the course to "protect the field" and maintain pace of play. Slow play, intentional or unintentional, is not permitted. Stanley Golf Course's rangers monitor slow play and if a group falls behind, that group may be told to pick up their balls to catch up. This disqualifies the entire group from the tournament that day.

Tournaments are played unless the course is closed. If you sign-up to play in a tournament, it is critical you arrive at the golf course ready to play. If a member must cancel less than 24 hours before the tournament, the player must notify the Pro Shop and Tournament Director or designee for that event.

LOCAL/USGA RULES

Note: USGA Rules govern all play except as amended on the back of the scorecard.

In the case of a tie in most tournaments, the winner is determined by matching cards according to the following USGA approved method: (the only exception is the Club Championship where the winner is determined by a Sudden Death Play-Off.)

Compare the total gross score of the last nine holes (low gross wins). If a tie remains, compare the last six holes of the back nine. If a tie remains, compare the last three holes of the back nine. If a tie remains, compare the last (18th) hole on the back nine. If a tie remains, follow the same comparison format for the front nine.

Unless otherwise instructed at the start of each tournament, members are to "Play the ball down" (i.e. the ball CANNOT be rolled over in the fairway or its position moved in the rough or sand traps).

1. Lost Ball - If your ball is lost anywhere or goes Out-of-Bounds, you MUST re-hit the shot from the original point, scoring one stroke for the first shot, one stroke for the penalty, and one stroke for the next shot. If you think your ball may be lost or Out-of-Bounds, play a second ball and declare it a provisional or second ball at play. A second ball at play under penalty of stroke and distance.

2. Hazards - Hazards at Stanley Golf Course are marked by red lines, red posts, yellow lines or yellow posts. When a ball is played in a hazard, the club CANNOT be grounded. For example: the left side of the fairway on the seventh hole of the Blue Nine is a hazard. Sand traps are hazards. Do NOT ground your club. Shots DO NOT have to be re-hit (the rule differs from that of a lost ball). Drop a ball two (2) club lengths from the spot where the ball entered the hazard, with a one (1) stroke penalty, and continue play.

Dangerous Conditions - If the warning siren goes off during a tournament, all play stops IMMEDIATELY—no exceptions—and all players must leave the course. Failure to follow this rule will result in disqualification (in a team event, the entire team will be disqualified).

HANDICAPS and EQUITABLE STROKE CONTROL (ESC)

A USGA GHIN Handicap is required for participation in all tournaments, except for Opening Day. An accurate handicap is essential to ensure the integrity of tournament scoring, especially in team tournaments. The only way to do this is by accurately posting your scores for all rounds of golf played. The maximum handicap allowed for tournament play is 42 (USGA Index of 40.4). Players with higher handicaps are assigned the maximum handicap for tournament play.

To establish a handicap, a new member must post five 18-hole scores, (or the equivalent in 9-hole scores), indicating the date, gross score, slope and/or course rating of the course played (found on most scorecards). A handicap will be issued after five scores are transmitted. The computer will take new scores immediately, but handicaps are issued and/or updated by the USGA twice a month on the 1st and 15th of the month. Therefore, it is possible to take up to 3 weeks after entry of five scores to get a handicap.

Once a handicap is established, members should post all 9 and 18-hole adjusted scores. Scorecards should be adjusted per the ESC guidelines. (It is NOT necessary to turn in scorecards for non-women’s league play).

Equitable Stroke Control (ESC) Guidelines:

In 1993 the USGA introduced a simple, straightforward procedure to adjust scores under Equitable Stroke Control (ESC). ESC sets a maximum number a player can post on ANY hole, regardless of par, depending on the player’s Course Handicap. ESC dictates the following maximum strokes per hole:

Course Handicap	Max Score to be Posted on any hole
9 or less	2 over par
10 – 19	7
20 – 29	8

30 – 39	9
40 – and above	10

There is no limit to the number of holes reduced to your maximum score. Remember, the reduction is applied to any hole, regardless of par on that hole (i.e., a player with a course handicap of 17 can take a maximum score of 7 on a Par 3, Par 4 or Par 5). The Adjusted Score is entered into the Handicap Computer to maintain your handicap, your Actual Score is used for tournament scoring and prizes.

Each member is responsible for adjusting her score in accordance with the Equitable Stroke Control Chart. The Handicap Chairperson, Tournament Director, Club Officers and Pro Shop Staff can assist members with this procedure. The Handicap Chairperson, will review scorecards after the Pro Shop has tabulated tournament results to ensure all members have complied with the above.

SNEWGA (Southern New England Women’s Golf Assoc.)

The Southern New England Women’s Golf Association (SNEWGA) is a group of over 500 women from 30 golf clubs throughout Connecticut. Its goal is the promotion and enhancement of women’s golf in the state. Membership provides many additional opportunities for organized golf activities for all levels of golfers and all levels of competition, from statewide major golf championships to invitational tournaments and a spring and fall match play event. Individual member dues are $15.00. Members receive an Annual Directory with information needed for active participation in events.

SPRING & PRESIDENT CUP MATCHES: SNEWGA Match Play Tournaments are played in the spring and fall with other clubs. Both events take place over three consecutive Saturdays and are Match-Play by handicap. It is a great opportunity to meet women golfers from other clubs and play in different surroundings in a match play format.

INVITATIONAL: An Invitational is a tournament that takes place during the golf season at clubs throughout the state. You can make up your own teams. Generally the format is Best-Ball by handicap. Lunch is usually provided with prizes and door-prizes awarded.

SNEWGA MAJOR TOURNAMENTS: SNEWGA holds ten major championships each year. Prizes are awarded for gross and net winners. Selection for team events is a random drawing from interested players

Announcements and entry forms for these tournaments can be found on the SNEWGA Bulletin Board in the SWGC locker room, on the SNEWGA web site (www.snewga.org) or contact our SNEWGA Rep Sue Seigars, (grandmasusan23@gmail.com). SNEWGA sign up is included in the Stanley Women’s Golf Club application.
